

OK2Ask™ from TeachersFirst

A series of live, online “snack sessions” (available live and in archived format) for self-directed teacher professional development and exploration

Session Title:

Energizing Math: Ideas, Resources, and Collaboration for K-8 Math Teachers

Date/time: Thursday, January 24, 2013 ; 7:00-8:30 EDT

Preregister at <http://teachersfirst.wikispaces.com/OK2Ask> or from the link on the TeachersFirst.com home page no later than January 22, 2013. Participation requires high-speed Internet connection (cable modem, DSL, or school network). Not suitable for dial-up connections.

Description:

Discover TeachersFirst 3.0 to energize math in the K-8 classroom. Participants will view and explore resources for lesson planning, student use, and collaboration through Twitter and blogs. A question/answer period will be available to help with individual questions. It's OK2Ask™.

As a result of this session and through individual follow-up, teachers will:

- Gather ideas by exploring 6-10 math resources located on TeachersFirst.
- Investigate and discuss lesson ideas offered in the reviews and by other teachers in this online session.
- List possible curriculum-related projects or activities that students could do in his/her classes using one of these resources.
- Explore and practice with the resource(s) of choice.
- (follow-up) Plan and implement a student-centered, curriculum-related use of the resource(s) of choice as part of an upcoming teaching unit.
